to the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD.
ON ETERNAL MISERY.
AR, WHITEFIELD, hear, and answer, if you can;
ou from Nature's wife, and perfect Plan, av'n design'd ne'er ending Woe for MAN?
his Earth, with every Beauty gay;
rejoicing shine the God of Day;
hey'd Sufferers hear, in every Grove,
ot future Woe, sweet warbling Love;
ry Mead, the wide-spread Down survey,
graze the Herds, and where the Lambskins play;
an ascends the peaceful Queen of Night,
fair Starry Host attract thy Sight;
ry View, can aught be understood CREATOR, infinitely good?
ough all Nature canst thou find One Trace,
in eternal waits the Human Race?
d thou this from Kindness and from Grace?
spel, what Glad tidings will thee tell,
oundless Mercy can erect its Hell?
Goodness, quite immense, can cease to flow;
th unquenching Eye, view endless Woe?
Teacher, think; and answer,— Art thou sure,
ry, which for ever must endure,

Extends no longer to the Sons of Men,
Than the short Life of Threescore Years and Ten?
Is such GOD's Favour to his Creature MAN;
His WRATH eternal, and his LOVE a Span?

Where may be had,
A Collection of the most famous Running Horses belonging to the Dukes of Somerset, Devonshire, Bolton, the Earl of Portmore, and other of the Nobility and Gentry in England, curiously engraved on Copper Plates by N. B. This Set consists of Twenty-five Prints, seven and a Half deep by eight Inches and Half wide, and the Prints of Mr. Greenwood's Crab, Mr. Palmer's Billy, and Stiff Dick, and other Horses, now first seen in Original Drawings.

A Set of Alexander's Battles in six Prints, each of eight Inches deep and fourteen Inches wide, very neatly engraved being pretty Furniture for a Closet, or the Studies of those who are reading Quintus Curtius, or Arrian's History, viz. 1. Alexander's forcing his Passage over the Granicus. 2. The Battle between Alexander and Darius at Arbela. 3. Alexander's victory and Continence at the Royal Tent of the Persian Darius. 4. Alexander's Triumphal Entrance into Babylon. 5. The Battle of Alexander with Porus a King of India. 6. A Sequel to the Battle with Porus, shewing Alexander's generosity to the defeated and wounded King. Engraved by the Designs of Le Brun, for Tapestry in one of the places belonging to the French King.

This Day is Published,
The Sixth Edition, with material Additions, Corrections and Amendments, of

A Treatise of the Diseases of the Brain, and Nerves, more especially of the Palsy, Apoplexy, Lethargy, Epilepsy, Convulsions, Cramp, Vertigo, Megrim, inveterate Head-ach, &c. with Directions for their thorough Cure, and how these and many other terrible Nervous Distempers may be assuredly prevented, as certainly cur'd, and consequently many Lives saved by Medicines therein, in English, prescribed, without the Reserve.

To which is subjoined,
A Discourse of MELANCHOLY in Men, and Women; explicating the whole Train of Symptoms, Degrees, and real Cause of those wretched Maladies, discovering a short and most certain Method of Cure, and easy Remedies therein also candidly presented, in which Persons of either Sex, who are unhappily affected with Melancholy or Vapours, may absolutely cure themselves those pernicious Distempers in a short time, without Fatigue or Disorder. By a Physician.

London, printed and sold by the Author's Appliance only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Bow-Yard in the Minories. Price bound 2 s.

The most excruciating Rheumatism, and all Rheumatic Pains, fix'd or wandering, in the Limbs or Parts, infallibly, and instantly cur'd without any or the least Trouble or Disorder.

BY INCOMPARABLE CHYMICAL

Which at once entirely free the Patient from that Distemper; for they immediately restore a due and equal circulation to the Fluids in the minutest Canals, by effectually attenuating and subduing the pernicious Lentor, or obdurate viscid Humour which occasions all the Torture, and that all Manner of Pain, though ever so violent, vanishes, to the Admiration of all who have taken them, could not believe it in the Power of Medicine to grow sudden, and seemingly miraculous Ease, till happily vindicated by their own Experience.

Hundreds who had been miserably afflicted with the most painful Years, and try'd most other Remedies, have been instantly cured by these most excellent Drops, were never once known to fail. They are agreeable to Nature, and for Safety might be given to an Infant; and are sold only at Jacob's Coffee-house against the Angel and the Tavern in Broad-street behind the Royal-Exchange, at a Bottle, with Directions.

An Infallible REMEDY

For BROKEN-WINDED HORSES.

Which has been published and sold many Years before any Counterfeits in the World appeared; and highly commended from one to another. The vast Quantities that have been sold, also verify its Efficacy and Virtues, for it not only cures them, after all others Means have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small time, without any violent operation; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed by the dripping thereof, occasion'd by hard Riding, Cold, &c. causes presently a free Perspiration, renewing its Vigour and Length again, as well as ever.

It immediately cures those Horses only a little troubled with their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Distempers incident unto them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a good Breath.

And in a word, by this very Medicine alone, many Horses have been made so perfectly sound, that they have been valued from 10 to 30 or 40 Pounds, which by a Broken-winded, could not before be sold for 3 or 4 Pounds.

It is sold at Mr. Sandwell's Toy-Shop at the Corner of Buckler's-Bury in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. each Bottle, with Directions for taking it; and no where else in England.
